

Professional Experience

Gay Jarvis has over 24 years of experience in both multi-family and commercial property management. Before joining Cassidy Turley, Gay was a property manager for Anthem Equity Group in Tucson, Arizona. She began her career with Anthem as an onsite manager responsible for three properties, one of which included two restaurants, 40 executive suites, and light industrial space. In 2007, she moved to Anthem's corporate office as maintenance manager for their entire portfolio.

Gay is most proud of the integral relationships she built with her tenants and vendors which led to Anthem to being praised in the local real estate community for their timely service and well kept properties.

She holds a B.A. in Business with a minor in Computer Information Systems from National University, San Diego, CA. She is Past President of the Building Owners and Managers Association of Greater Tucson. She was chosen as BOMA's Principal Member of the Year in 2010 and received her RPA designation in 2001.

Ms. Jarvis is married to a computer engineer. They enjoy traveling and have visited 29 countries so far in their journeys.
