

Richard (Rich) New has been an IFMA member for thirteen years supporting the Denver, Dallas and now the Tucson chapters. Specific to IFMASA he now serves as the Chapter President; previously as VP for Membership, Social Events and Education.

Rich brings a broad background in Operations & Site Management of Plant Services to include Facilities, Customer Assurance, Environment Health & Safety, Telecommunications, Food Services, and Employee Fitness Centers.

His Business Skills include Resource Stewardship, Financial Forecasting & Analysis, and the development of Strategic Plans. In addition Rich is a Raytheon Certified Six Sigma Expert with an MBA in Management and also a MA in Computer Resources & Information Management.