

Jessica Palato is the Branch Manager for the Tucson office at Vet-Sec Protection Agency. Jessica has worked in the security industry for over 10 years and earned her Bachelor's of Science Degree in Criminal Justice.

While an Account Manager for a high volume demanding contract, her duties included but were not limited to leading and supervising a security team of 110 officers at several high profile sites. Jessica designed numerous types of security related training courses that includes such topics as: Active Shooter "How to Respond", Dealing with Aggressive Behavior, Courthouse Security, Drug Identification Training and Use of Force. Jessica is a Tucson Native and a Coach for the Cholla High School Girls Basketball team.