

Judy Lowe is the Commissioner of the Arizona Department of Real Estate. Involved in the state's commercial, residential, land and relocation real estate industry for more than 30 years, Judy has served as president of both the Tucson Association of Realtors and the Arizona Association of Realtors. Working her way up from a real estate secretary, Judy received her first real estate license in 1980, became a broker in 1986, was co-owner of Coldwell Banker Success Realty by 1992 and followed this with ownership of Realty Executives Southern Arizona. As State Commissioner, she has made it her goal to "raise the bar for all licensees in Arizona to more fully protect and serve the public."
