

Shane Musgrove is the Director of Value Management at AlliedBarton Security Services. Shane has been involved in the private security industry for 19 years and holds a Master's degree and a Bachelor's degree in organizational security management. Shane is responsible for overseeing, directing and leading a team to achieve operational, financial and compliance functions throughout the South West Region.