

Boyd Drachman
President

Boyd Drachman is President and owner of Drachman Insurance Services, Inc. a commercial insurance brokerage agency in Tucson specializing in property, casualty, surety and employee benefits for businesses. He began his career at age 21 with a regional brokerage firm and completed an internship with CT Bowring, a large Lloyd's of London broker in 1979. He co-founded Drachman Leed Insurance in 1984 and his present company in 2011.

Boyd has been active in many local private and governmental organizations and committees including past director of The Tucson Conquistadores, past member of The Centurions of St. Mary's Hospital, Chairman of the Arizona Aero Space Foundation/Pima Air Museum, member of the Tucson/Pima County Historical Commission, and member of the Pima County Trial Courts Nominating Committee.

Boyd is an avid pilot, hunter, fisherman and outdoorsman. A lifelong resident of Tucson, Boyd lives with his wife and four children on Tucson's eastside.