

Mr. Mallette has 13 years' experience in security management, investigations and operations. He currently oversees field training for six states, and manages Allied Universal's regional firearms, defensive tactics, and fire/life safety programs. A graduate of California State University, Fresno, Mr. Mallette is board-certified in security management as a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) by ASIS International, and is a High-Rise/Fire Life Safety Consultant for the Los Angeles Fire Department. He proudly serves as Assistant Regional Vice President of ASIS International, Region 1D, and is an Infrastructure Liaison Officer (ILO) with FBI Infragard- Los Angeles Chapter.