

Dave Gallaher, CCIM, started Tucson Industrial Realty LLC in 1984 celebrating 31 years in the industrial and commercial real estate brokerage this year. Dave became the sole owner and designated broker in 1987. Tucson Industrial Realty LLC has a proven track record of providing both leasing and sales brokerage services to a large array of Tucson industries. Dave has been a regular participant in the Southern Arizona CCIM Chapter Annual Real Estate Forecast and won back to back to back forecast for the industrial market in 2003, 2004 and 2005.

Dave is active in the community and has lived in Tucson since 1968 except for a four year journey in economic development in the state of Washington. Dave has served on a variety of boards in many different organizations and most recently completed one year as the President of the largest Rotary Club in the state of Arizona, Tucson Rotary Club.

Dave is married and has two adult children still on the payroll and when not working real estate deals he is either fly fishing or upland bird hunting in southern Arizona.