

Fletcher McCusker

BIO

Fletcher McCusker is the current CEO and founder of Sinfonia HealthCare Corp. a new medical home health care business. Sinfonia is based out of an old warehouse in downtown Tucson, Arizona, and will focus on the rapidly expanding home health industry driven by the changes in the Health Care Affordability Act. A native Tucsonan and a graduate of the University of Arizona he attended graduate school at Arizona State University after being turned down by the U of A. He has returned much to the community; serving on the boards of the Eller School and the Social and Behavioral Sciences College, the YMCA, St. Gregory School, The Metro Chamber, TREO and participates in numerous charitable causes. Fletcher has been very active in downtown revitalization. He recently resigned these boards to serve as the Chairman of the Rio Nuevo board after being appointed by state legislature.

He is co-founder of 2NDSaturdays Downtown which has just celebrated four years running this last May 2014. An entrepreneur and a contrarian Fletcher has a knack for being in the right place at the right time, which he attributes to creating opportunities for luck to happen and surrounding himself with smart people. A pilot, a Harley rider, an avid skier, a father, husband and a great friend of Tucson.
