

Victoria Knudson

National Industrial Property Management Lead | CIS, Cushman & Wakefield

Victoria Knudson joined Cushman & Wakefield's Midwest region in 2011. She is the National Industrial Property Management Lead; bringing 24 years of real estate experience. Her focus is on strengthening and overseeing the company's Property Management Operations with a significant concentration on expanding the Industrial Platform while supporting Cushman & Wakefield's full array of globally integrated services.

Ms. Knudson is a member of various real estate and professional organizations. She is currently an active member in National Association of Office and Industrial Properties (NAOIP) and BOMA. She holds a real estate broker's license in Illinois.